American Property Insurance Company Announces Promotion of Christopher Bonavito to Controller

EATONTOWN, NJ [09/29/2025] – American Property Insurance Company, a growing regional insurance carrier for small and medium-sized businesses operating in 23 states, today announced the promotion of Christopher Bonavito to Controller.

In his new role, Bonavito will oversee the company's accounting operations, financial reporting, and internal controls. He previously served as Accounting Manager at the company.

"We are pleased to recognize Chris's outstanding contributions to our organization," said Mark Heid, Chief Financial Officer at American Property Insurance Company. "His strong educational background and proven leadership in our accounting department make him ideally suited for this expanded role."

Bonavito is a 2017 graduate of Monmouth University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Accounting. Prior to joining American Property Insurance Company, he was employed by Forvis Mazars (formerly Mazars USA), an accounting firm located in Edison, New Jersey. He currently resides in Eatontown, New Jersey.

"I'm honored to take on this new challenge and look forward to contributing to the continued growth and success of American Property Insurance Company," said Bonavito.
